1099 LETTER

THIS MAY APPLY IF YOU OPERATE A BUSINESS OR OWN RENTAL PROPERTY.

It's 1099 season! Forms must be issued to your independent contractors by 1/31/2026.

We need your updated independent contractor information and total payments made to each by Monday, January 19, 2026.

If your contractor payments are finalized for the year, feel free to send everything in now — early submissions help your contractors receive their forms sooner.

If we handle your bookkeeping and you'd like us to pull payment totals for you, let us know. Additional bookkeeping fees may apply.*

DO YOU NEED TO ISSUE A 1099?

In general, you must issue a 1099 if you paid $600 or more to a person or business (other than a corporation) for services.

When a 1099 is required:

1099-NEC

For $600 or more paid to contractors, consultants, gig workers, freelancers, or similar providers.

1099-MISC

For $600 or more paid in rent, prizes/awards, medical payments, attorney fees, or other miscellaneous income. Also required for $5,000 or more in direct sales of consumer goods.

Visit the IRS website for more information.

W-9 REQUIREMENTS

Click here for the latest W-9 Form. Please have each contractor complete and sign page 1, or confirm that the W-9 you have on file is still accurate.

While the IRS does not require a new W-9 every year, it is good practice to obtain updated W-9s annually. This helps ensure all contractor information is current and reduces filing issues.

If you choose not to collect a new W-9 forms annually, please make sure the following details are fully up-to-date for each contractor, as the form must be refreshed any time information changes (legal name, business name, address, tax ID, entity type, or exemption).

BEST PRACTICES FOR SUBMITTING CONTRACTOR & 1099 INFORMATION

To ensure timely and accurate 1099 filings, please provide us with the following information for each contractor:

- Contractor/Payee Name
- SSN or TIN/EIN
- Mailing Address
- Email Address
- Total Dollar Amount Paid in 2025

Thank you for your cooperation and for trusting Ritchie & Company with your year-end filings. If you have any questions, we're here to help.

Warm regards,
Ritchie & Company, Inc.
